

An Invitation...

"If all students are different, do they need different treatments? How can teachers deal with mixed-intelligence, mixed-ability classes?"

Join us in this Educational Seminar that focuses on the relationship between motivation and individual differentiation among students and teachers and ways to improve personal developments...

Just Right Seminar

Monday, 6th of April
2pm-5pm @ Suntec City Guild House

(#3 Temasek Boulevard #05-001
Suntec City Mall
Singapore 038983)

Admission is FREE!
Register now to avail
our FREE gifts!

for more information, please call 6265-6666
or send us an email:
enquiry@alkem.com.sg

Guest Speaker's Background:

Jeremy Harmer has taught in Mexico and the UK and is currently on the faculty for the MA TESOL at the New School University, New York. He has trained teachers and offered seminars all over the world. Among the course materials he has devised are Just Right and the Just Skills series, recently published by Marshall Cavendish. He is the author of methodology titles including How to Teach English (2007), The Practice of English Language Teaching (4th edition 2007) and How to teach Writing (2004) - all published by Pearson Longman. He is the co-author of Your Turn, a course for Austrian schools. He is general editor of the Pearson How to methodology list. Find out more about Jeremy at www.jeremy-harmer.com

Sponsored by:

mc Marshall Cavendish Education